

Answer Key

God love (s) you . Yes, He does. He says so many times in the Bible such as in John 3:16. Reading certain parts of the Bible is like reading a Valentine from God and getting a big I love you from Him. I may not feel him hug me (kiss me also acceptable) or kiss me (hug me also acceptable), but I know He loves me and you too. He shows His love and care for us in other ways, by protecting us from harm, providing for our needs, answering our prayers, comforting us and giving us peace and joy in times of trouble.

Abraham thought Sarah was a cutie. The Bible says she was very beautiful. God thinks you're a cutie too. You were made in God's image (Gen. 1:27) and “fearfully and wonderfully made.” (Psalms 139:14)

Sometimes, people let us down and leave us in doubt about whether they care for us or not, and, sometimes, leave us in no doubt that they don't care. There is no maybe about God's love for us. God says, “I have loved you with an everlasting love.” (Jeremiah 31:3) He loves us in spite of our imperfections and sin and even before we believed in Him. Nothing can separate us from the love of God. (Romans 8:35-39)

God wants us to love others too that our joy might be full! (John 15:11) This includes our friends, our family and others. You may not often say “I love you” to everyone, but say a quick “Love you” to your mom, and she will love it. If you give her some XOXO, she'll like it even better.

A person might sign a Valentine, “Love you” or “I love you” or even “XOXO.” Some of Jesus' last words on earth were to encourage us to tell others about Him, and in that way, we share His love with others.